Revised 2-2012

Physical Requirements for Defensive Tactics Training

Box 5

Defensive T actics Training is conducted throughout the academ y, much of this training involves unar med defense and close combat situations. Students will be involved in grappling, and deliver and receive strikes and kicks in dynamic scenarios, requiring a high leve 1 of phy sical exertion and bod y flexibility. Students will practice and demonstrate techniques involving pressure point application to sensitive areas of the body, dynamic forward, backward and lateral movements, and twisting and striking while swinging a baton. Handcuffing techniques will be performed, requiring flexibility and full range of movement of the wrist, arm and shoulder.

Revised 6-2011

Physical Requirements for Practical Exercises

Box 6

Students will be required to react to realistic scenarios involving simulated physical and weapon attacks in which they are expected to apprehend susp ects, control resistance and restrain subjects. Officers will use training weapons, including firearms. During scenarios students may be required to run, crouch, crawl, kneel and fire handguns from various positions. Required movements will include entering and exiting a vehicle repeatedly, kneeling and standing for prolonged periods of time, and reaction to spontaneous threat situations with physical tactics and firearms skills that have already been taught. Scenarios will require sudden stops, starts and turns on hard surfaces. Scenarios may occur in all environments, such as inclement weather, hard surfaces, or stairwells.

Physical Requirements of Emergency Vehicle Operation Training

Box 7

Each student must successfully complete Emergency Vehicle Operation Training (EVOC), an intensive battery of repeated driving drills conducted over one continuous five-day period. This battery subjects the student to several phy sically demanding maneuvers. Students drive in reverse for considerable distances, and per form reverse driving exercises that require significant rapid turns of the upper body and hips. The course also requires repeated sudden braking, stopping, and turning and requires a student to make strenuous, vi sual safety checks. These checks require considerable twisting of the head, neck, and upper body.

Physical Requirements of Firearms Training

Box 8

Successful completion of firear ms training is required for certification as a Law Enforcement Officer. Firearm training consists of intense live-fire exercises and dry-fire drills. Each student will shoot a pproximately 1200 rounds from a handgun and approximately 60 rounds from a shotgun during the course of the academy. As part of the training, each student must shoot a qualify ing score with both firear ms. Successful firear ms training requires the requisite fine motor skills to safely manipulate and shoot loaded firearms with both dominant and non-dominant hands and fingers. Most shooting is done with the dominant hand. Students must successfully and safely manipulate trigger pulls of vary ing weight and physically support a loaded firear m from a variety of shooting stances and positions. Students are required to shoot from a standing, kneeling, and prone position and perform numerous repetitions transitioning from a standing to kneeling position while safely holding a loaded firearm. Training movements require students to move forward, backward and laterally, be able to see and identify hostile and non-hostile target s in various lighting conditions, and simulate high risk scenarios that include running, and tactical movements such as kneeling, crouching, and crawling. Students must have the ability to hear range commands while wearing hearing protection (ear plugs or ear muffs).
